CVC WORDS SOUND IT OUT

The CVC Words Sound it Out packet provides children with a fun and engaging activity for identifying, reading, and writing the most common CVC word families. This is an ideal activity for beginning as well as struggling readers.

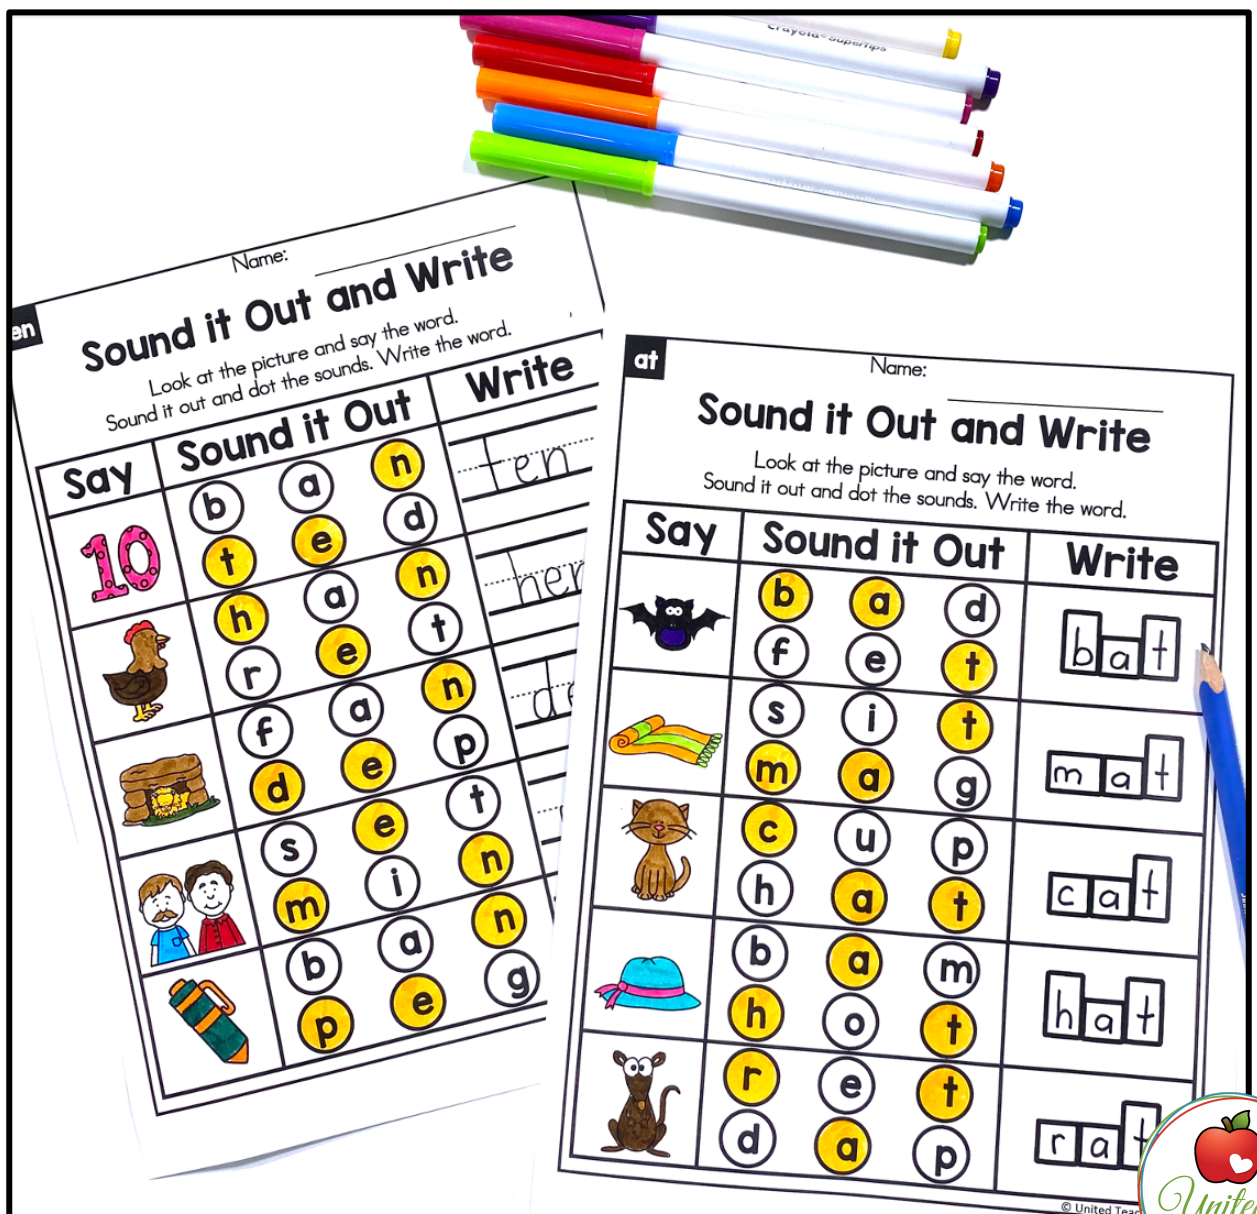

Children say the name for the picture and sound out the word. To help them spell the word, a choice of two letters is provided for the initial consonant, vowel, and ending consonant. Children dot the correct sound and write the complete word in the letter boxes or on the handwriting lines. This activity can be used in literacy centers, small group work, and distance learning.
